NATIONAL VECTOR BORNE DISEASE CONTROL PROGRAMME, GUJARAT

February 2020 : Highlights
Situation of Vector Borne Diseases.

Malaria

- Surveillance for malaria was very good as Annual Blood Examination Rate (Percentage of population screened for detection of malaria parasite) during February 2020 was 1.7 % against target of 1.5% .
- Till the end of February 2020 Malaria cases declined by 30.41% in comparison with previous year
- None of the districts reported >1.0 Annual parasitic Incidence in 2019. Facilitating the State to move towards category I States (elimination stage)
- Major contributing districts with reference to malaria cases were Ahmedabad Corporation (16%), Surat Municipal Corporation (30%).

Dengue:

- Detailed directives and activity plan circulated to all districts and corporations for effective control of Dengue in 2020.
- Sero positivity rate for Dengue during February 2020 was 3.9% which was comparatively high as compared to 1.4 of 2019.
- Districts and Municipal Corporations which contributed maximum dengue cases in the State up to month of February 2020 were Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation (22.0%),Vadodara Municipal Corporation (17.0%),Vadodara(7%) & Kutchh (5.0%)

Chikungunya:

- Number of cases of Chikungunya declined by 19.6 % up to the month of February 2020 as compared to previous year.
- Major contributing districts and Municipal Corporations up to month of February 2020 were Vadodara Municipal Corporation (30.20%), Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation (25.47%) and Vadodara district (10.4%).

Elimination of Lymphatic Filariasis

- To achieve Filaria elimination by the end of 2020 in Gujarat Triple Drug Therapy (IDA) was implemented in Tapi district from 27th January 2020 onward.
- 95% of the population has been covered under this activity.

Specific Initiatives –

- Distribution of 6.03 lakh LLINs initiated.
- Training of Laboratory Technicians and Supervisors undertaken .
- Planning made for training of specialists in case management in all Medical Colleges.
- Spray Strategy for 2020 finalized.