NATIONAL VECTOR BORNE DISEASE CONTROL PROGRAMME, GUJARAT

April 2025 : Highlights
Situation of Vector Borne Diseases.

Malaria

- Surveillance for malaria was very good. Monthly Blood Examination Rate (Percentage of population screened for detection of malaria parasite) during April 2025 was 1.9%.
- Till the end of April 25 Malaria cases are declined by 30.9% in comparison with previous year
- None of the districts reported >1 Annual parasitic Incidence in 2021 to 2024.

Dengue:

- Activities incorporated under the activity plan during the year 2025 are being implemented in high risk areas such as indoor fogging, source reduction and anti larval activities for effective control of Dengue in 2025.

- Major Contribution – Till April -2025

Malaria	Dengue	Chikungunya
SMC (32 %)	AMC (26%)	VMC (27%)
AMC (25 %)	VMC (12%)	AMC,RMC (11%)
Jamnagar, Kutchh Surendranagr (4%)	Mehsana (7%)	Vadodara (8%)
	Rajkot (6%)	Mehsana (6%)
	SMC (5%)	Rajkot,BMC (5%)

- National World Malaria Day (25th April) was observed in campaign mode for community participation in prevention and control of mosquito breeding. Print, Electronic and social Medias are utilized for this campaign.